

SLAM POETRY :

It's a testimony of a victim, a bully and a bystander

I was a victim of bullying.
I was a bully and I had a victim.
I was a bystander and I saw it all.

I was alone and helpless.
I was the person who stole from you.
I was the person who looked away .

I was intimidated and insulted at school.
I was a person who called you rude names.
I was so sorry because this situation was overwhelming.

I was not as muscular and popular as the bully.
I was a powerful person.
I was worried to become a victim of bullying.

You, NEVER look away !
You, ALWAYS act and help a victim !
You, ALWAYS intervene and speak with a trustful adult !
EVERYONE AGAINST BULLYING !
