Against homophobia

Do you know how it feels to be bullied,
For your sexual orientation ?

Do you think it's amusing to be destroyed,
When nobody says you 'Come on'.

Do you think it's kind to incite,
Homosexuals to commit suicide .

Do you think it's pleasant to be rejected,
By your best friend.

But you think it's harmless to insult,
To crush someone with your words.

This story is my cousin's story.

Do you know how we call that ?
We call it homophobia !

Now you know this story,
make a stand against homophobia !
